Lower Manhattan's Best Cuisine Featured At 12th Dine Around Downtown Event

New York, NY (May 31, 2011) - ONE day, around FIFTY restaurants, HUNDREDS of signature dishes, THOUSANDS of delicious servings and happy eaters, and LIVE music – It's time for the 12th Dine Around Downtown festival in Lower Manhattan!

Dine Around Downtown highlights Lower Manhattan's thriving culinary scene and is a once-a-year opportunity to sample the creations of Lower Manhattan's most exciting chefs and restaurants.

Dine Around Downtown will feature scores of well-known Lower Manhattan restaurants, including Delmonico's Steakhouse, The Capital Grille, Stone Street Tavern, Battery Gardens, Les Halles Downtown, Harry's Italian, Smorgas Chef, Nelson Blue and Haru. Cuisines will range from French to Japanese to Mexican to New American. Admission to the event is free, and a variety of signature menu items may be purchased for only $3 to $7 per tasting.

Approximately 20,000 Lower Manhattan workers, residents and visitors are expected to attend the event, which will feature live music by the Jazz Museum AllStars.

This event is presented by the Downtown Alliance with additional support from Bloomberg, JPMorgan Chase, The Moinian Group, The New York Observer, WNYC New York Public Radio and 1-800-Postcards.

An updated list of participating restaurants is available at www.downtownny.com.
